H. C. HEMMENWAY respectfully informs Territery of Kaness, that he has recently opened his new store at the corner of Massachusetts and Henry Sts., (Collamore Hujldings.) where he will self foreash, at wholesale or retail, a fresh importation of the richest Fancy and Millinery Goods ever brought into this Territory, at prices that cannot fail to usit all. He will continually receive from Boston and New York the latest, richest, and most fashionable of all articles in his lingof trade, and he flatters himself that, as his entire attention is devoted to this one branch of business, he can sell at lower prices and goods of a superior quality, than are sold in any other store in the Territory, Country Merchants are particularly invited to call and examine.

chusetts. He continued his efforts until the 30th of September, when 21,000 copies of the first issue of the Hernald of Freedom were given to the public from his power press in Pennsylvania.—Circumstances, over which he had no control, delayed the publication of his journal in Kansas until the 3d of January. 1835, when the second number was issued. It continued to be published with great regularity, until the destruction of his office, in May, 1836, when the second number was issued. It continued to be published with great regularity, until the destruction of his office, in May, 1836, when the editor was imprisoned, and the paper was temperarily suspended. Through the exertions of Mrs. Brown, and the generous contributions of the friends of the cause in Kansas, the paper was revived on the last of November, 1836. Sincethat time, with the exception of three weeks in March it has been regularly issued.

The plan adopted by the publisher for restoring freedom to Kansas, was not by anti-slavery agitation, nor a crussed upon Southern institutions, but by developing the resources of the country, and encouraging bone fide emigration from the States, believing that interest and early education would result in the exclusion of slavery from the Territory.

Devoted from youth to the Uxion of the States, and with implicit confidence in the ultimate triumph of the Right, he never turned aside from his purpose. At times his journal was violently assailed for its conservation, and the Garrier in the state of the invaders from Missouri, and its unrelenting devotion to the Free State cause, denounced it as an abolition affair, and when the leaders of that party could not suppress it by other means, its editor was imprisoned and the press destroyed.

With its revival and the addition of Mr. WAYTLES, as one of its editors, who had been long known to the grand joint proprietor with Janss G. Bransy, in the establishment and publication of the Philandshopoits, nearly a quarter of a century ago, in Cinetinnati, and who had continued
